

The First Crusades- Knowledge Organiser St Gregory's Catholic Primary School – Year 6

Dates to Remember
1095	1096	1097	1098	1099	1099	1100	1101	1102
Pope Urban II asks Knights of Europe to win back Jerusalem	The First Crusade began	Crusaders win great victory at Dorylaion	Crusaders capture several Syrian cities	Pope Urban II had died	Jerusalem is captured	New wave of crusaders arrives	European army defeated by Seljuks	Deemed the end of the first crusades

Religious wars between the Christians and Muslims for control of the Holy Land, especially Jerusalem A document which gave rights to the English people Carta A knight's way of life Chivalry A knight's way of life Chivalry A woman who rules an Empire Sultan The word for a King in an Islamic country. Knights A soldier on horseback who serves a baron Sin An act of rebellion or disobedience against a known God Noble Noble Noble An important Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A document which gave rights to the English people Pope Urban II promised the knights of Europe for Christianity. Many responded by taking the cross and showed this act by cuffing out red crosses before sewing them into their tunics. The First Crusade began in 1096. Christians, known as the Franks, from France, Germany and Italy set out on the long journey to the Holy Land, led by nobles and knights. A soldier on horseback who serves a baron Sin An act of rebellion or disobedience against a known God Noble Some one with high rank or a title Dome of the Rock An important Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A mimportant Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in		Key Vocabulary	Historical Facts	Key Figures
Carta Crusade to win back Jerusalem for Christianity, Many responded by taking the cross and showed this act by cutting out red crosses before sewing them into their tunics. Jerusalem Known as the Holy Land to many religions Empress A woman who rules an Empire Sultan The word for a King in an Islamic country. Knights A soldier on horseback who serves a baron Sin An act of rebellion or disobedience against a known God Noble Noble Noble Noble Crusade to win back Jerusalem for Christianity, Many responded by taking the cross and showed this act by cutting out red crosses before sewing them into their tunics. The First Crusade began in 1096. Christians, known as the Franks, from France, Germany and Italy set out on the long journey to the Holy Land, led by nobles and knights. A soldier on horseback who serves a baron Sin An act of rebellion or disobedience against a known God Noble Some one with high rank or a title Dome of the leaders of the First Crusade, who conquered Antioch (June 3, 1098). Peter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. After a long siege they captured Jerusalem in 1099. The attack was brutal, with thousands killed. A Christian source from the time claimed that, "The slaughter was so great that our men waded in blood up to their ankles." Godfrey of Bouillon was one of the leaders of the First Crusade. He was the first ruler of the Kingdom of Jerusalem	Crusades	Muslims for control of the Holy Land,		Pope Urban II Iaunched the Crusade movement, and
Carta Many population of the Many religions Chivalry A knight's way of life Known as the Holy Land to many religions Known as the Holy Land to many religions Empress A woman who rules an Empire The word for a King in an Islamic country. Knights A soldier on horseback who serves a baron Sin An act of rebellion or disobedience against a known God Noble Noble Noble An important Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem In many religions Function into their trunics. The First Crusade began in 1096. Christians, known as the Franks, from France, Germany and Italy set out on the long journey to the Holy Land, led by nobles and knights. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Feter the Hermit. One of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade.	Magna		Crusade to win back Jerusalem for Christianity.	onengmenta me papae, as a permeanerm,
 Chivalry	Carta	English people		Bohemond I
 Known as the Holy Land to many religions The First Crusade began in 1096. Christians, known as the Franks, from France, Germany and Italy set out on the long journey to the Holy Land, led by nobles and knights. Knights A soldier on horseback who serves a baron Sin An act of rebellion or disobedience against a known God Noble Noble Dome of the Intervision of Many religions The First Crusade began in 1096. Christians, known France, Germany and Italy set out on the long journey to the Holy Land, led by nobles and knights. A soldier on horseback who serves a baron After a long siege they captured Jerusalem in 1099. The attack was brutal, with thousands killed. A Christian source from the time claimed that, "The slaughter was so great that our men waded in blood up to their ankles." Godfrey of Bouillon was one of the leaders of the First Crusade. He was the first ruler of the Kingdom of Jerusalem 	Chivalry	A knight's way of life
Sultan The word for a King in an Islamic country. Knights A soldier on horseback who serves a baron Sin An act of rebellion or disobedience against a known God Noble Noble An important Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem A woman who roles an Empire and Italy set out on the long journey to the Holy Land, led by nobles and knights. After a long siege they captured Jerusalem in 1099. The attack was brutal, with thousands killed. A Christian source from the time claimed that, "The slaughter was so great that our men waded in blood up to their ankles." Cone of the prominent leaders against the Jews in the first crusade. Godfrey of Bouillon was one of the leaders of the First Crusade. He was the first ruler of the Kingdom of Jerusalem our men waded in blood up to their ankles."	Jerusalem	Known as the Holy Land to many religions		conquered Antioch (June 3, 1098).
The word for a King in an Islamic country. Knights A soldier on horseback who serves a baron An act of rebellion or disobedience against a known God Noble Nob	Empress	A woman who rules an Empire
Sin An act of rebellion or disobedience against a known God Noble Noble Noble An important Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem Noble Noble Noble After a long siege they captured Jerusalem in 1099. The attack was brutal, with thousands killed. A Christian source from the time claimed that, "The slaughter was so great that our men waded in blood up to their ankles." Codfrey of Bouillon was one of the leaders of the First Crusade. He was the first ruler of the Kingdom of Jerusalem	Sultan	The word for a King in an Islamic country.		·
An act of rebellion or disobedience against a known God Noble Noble Noble An important Muslim shrine, or holy place, located in Jerusalem Noble	Knights	A soldier on horseback who serves a baron	After a long riogo they captured larusalem in
Noble Some one with high rank or a title Claimed that, "The slaughter was so great that our men waded in blood up to their ankles." was the first ruler of the Kingdom of Jerusalem our men waded in blood up to their ankles."	Sin		1099. The attack was brutal, with thousands	was one of the leaders of the First Crusade. He
located in Jerusalem	Noble
Rock Danube	Dome of the		our men waded in blood up to their ankles."
	Rock	locatea in Jerusalem		Danube

