

Captain Sir Tom Moore

Captain Sir Thomas Moore was the war veteran who made headlines around the world in mid-April 2020, when he pledged to raise money for the National Health Service (NHS), by walking 100 laps around his garden before his 100th birthday on April 30th. Sadly, Captain Sir Tom Moore passed away on 2nd February 2021.

The Challenge

Captain Tom had long been a supporter of the NHS. He spent some time in hospital after a hip replacement in 2018 and had been following the news about the NHS, who had been working hard to treat patients during the COVID-19 crisis. He decided to set himself the challenge of completing 100 laps of his 25 metre garden, walking ten laps each day and finishing before his 100th birthday. Captain Tom hoped to raise £1000 for NHS Charities Together.

Worldwide Support

Captain Tom's challenge was reported by his local news and word soon spread about his amazing effort. People very quickly took Captain Tom to their hearts and his story was shared more widely, including on the national news. More and more people donated money from all over the world. Within a day, Captain Tom had exceeded his target.

Captain Tom completed his 100 laps two weeks before his birthday, so decided to increase the number of laps he walked to 200.

More Fundraising

To help celebrate Tom reaching 100 laps, singer Michael Ball, the NHS Voices of Care Choir and Captain Tom released a version of the song 'You'll Never Walk Alone', which was number one in the singles charts on 24th April. Captain Tom is the oldest person ever to reach number one and the single was one of the fastest selling of 2020. Every single sold raised, and continues to raise, more money for the charity.

Biography

Captain Sir Thomas Moore was born in Yorkshire on 30th April 1920.

As an adult, he joined the army and served as a British Army officer in the Second World War. During his time in the army, Captain Tom was awarded three medals, which he wore whilst completing his fundraising laps.

When he was younger, his hobbies included motorcycle racing and he won several competitions.

He lived with one of his two daughters and her family in Bedfordshire.
